For more information contact:
Sheryl Vogt 706-542-5788
sbvogt@uga.edu

Jill Severn 706-542-5766
jsevern@uga.edu

Richard B. Russell Library for Political Research and Studies Collection
The Russell Library has over 300 collections from politicians, political parties, public policy organizations, federal and state appointees, and political observers and activists from modern Georgia (1900-present).

The scope of the Library's collections provides significant documentation of the broad spectrum of political activities of modern Georgia through over 14,000 linear feet of:
- correspondence
- speeches
- drafts of legislation
- domestic and foreign policy papers
- polling data
- campaign materials
- sound recordings
- electronic records
- photographs
- film
- video
- sound recordings
- artifacts
- oral histories

The collections also document the global relationships and interests formed by Georgians through political action, foreign service, trade, and other activities.